

1 In the presence of these witnesses, and of my own
... free will, I take you to be my spouse. I promise
... you that I will be a loving and faithful partner
... from this day forward, in better times, and in
... worse; for richer, for poorer; in sickness and in
... health; to love and to cherish.

3 Officiant:

4 The ring is an ancient symbol, so perfect and
... simple.

5 It has no beginning and has no end.

6 It is round like the sun, like the moon, like the
... eye, like arms that embrace.

7 It is a circle; for love that is given comes back
... round again.

8 Your rings are precious because you wear them
... with love.

9 They symbolize your commitment in marriage.

10 They remind you of who you are, where you've
... been, and where you're going.

11 As you wear them through time, they will reflect
... not only who you are as individuals, but also who
... you are a couple.

12 -----

13 With this ring, I pledge you my troth.
